

TAURANGA BOYS' COLLEGE WATER POLO

Tauranga Boys' College is one of New Zealand's leading boys' Water polo secondary schools. Currently ranked 4th in the country the boys are a force to be reckoned with.

The junior season for Year 9 & Year 10 players is played in Term 4 whilst the senior season stretches from December through to April. Players compete locally at one of Tauranga's impressive aquatic facilities as well as on a national level at tournaments in Taupo, Hamilton, Auckland and Wellington.

Most players also play for the local club Tauranga Water polo.

Head Coach for Tauranga Boys' College is teacher David Couper one of only a handful of FINA accredited referees in NZ.
